

ADB Breakfast seminar for lawyers

The Anti-Discrimination Board will be running a breakfast seminar for lawyers. It will specifically deal with: principles of equal opportunity, law relating to discrimination and harassment, OH&S, employment law and management of a legal practice. Participating would fulfill the mandatory continuing legal education (MCLE) requirement of rule 176.

The trainer is Margaret White (B.Juris, LLM, Cert IV in Workplace Training and Assessment), who is a Senior Workplace Relations Consultant with the ADB. She has many years' experience as a lawyer and educator and has a high level of expertise in EEO, discrimination, harassment and related issues. Margaret has run MCLE seminars for numerous government and private lawyers during her eight years with the Board.

For more information about the seminar content please contact Margaret on (02) 9268 55 28 or email Margaret_White@agd.nsw.gov.au
