

Stay in touch with the Attorney General's Department Alumni

About us

The Attorney General's Department (AGD) has an alumni—a network of former employees that continue to be involved with the organisation.

There are scheduled activities throughout the year, including a dinner, end of year function, social and informative events, as well as networking opportunities.

The alumni enables members to share knowledge, network and keep in touch with old colleagues, current staff and the Department.

Why form an alumni?

We know that former employees have valuable skills and organisational knowledge. By bringing them together, we hope to create an ongoing and mutually beneficial relationship, where experiences and knowledge are shared.

Why join?

Joining the alumni gives you an opportunity to renew or maintain friendships, establish networks and keep in touch with Department news. You could also get involved in:

- mentoring
- providing advice on projects
- organising alumni events
- recommending business process improvements
- participating in focus groups and forums.

Who can join?

Membership is open to all staff who have left the Department, including retired staff and long-term contractors.

The amount of time and effort you put in is completely up to you.
